The Eugene Lang Skybridge Art and Sound exhibition space will be hosting a show of students' work that envisions the future: "2109—Imagine the Future." The show opens March 3 and runs through April 13.

The Skybridge is a curatorial

In the upcoming month, I suggest you take a walk on the third floor to see the exhibition. Get set for a journey across the Skybridge's tubular passageway, where past, present, and future blend and pull you backward and forward, only for you to face the present.

Paula Davidsohn, a student in the class, said, "I am very excited about the theme and the very fact that it is students' work, because it's people we can relate to."
